

Hazard & Site Risk Statement

This form is confidential and must be completed and signed by the occupier

Police Officers will not normally enter the premises without the keyholder. However, this may on occasions be necessary due to suspicious circumstances. In order that attending Police Officers may be pre-warned, you are required to state any site hazards or risks. The following list is not definitive but intended as a guide to some of the most common types of hazards. You should carefully consider your premises and grounds to identify any other risks or hazards and record them under "OTHERS".

The confirmed following is

- Alarm Receiving Centre has been given details of two keyholders capable of attending within 20 minutes of notification. The user is aware that persistent failure unjustifiably of keyholders to attend within that time may result in the withdrawal of police response and/or approval for the system.
- The system user irrevocably authorises the system installer/maintainer/security systems company, (the security company) at their own discretion to pay to the police the URN administration fee on his/her behalf and accepts, notwithstanding this, that the liability for the payment of the fee rests solely with the user, that the security company cannot be held liable in any way if it does not pay the fee and agrees to indemnify the security company against any financial liability incurred in connection with the payment of the URN fee.
- The system user agrees that nothing in this or any other agreement shall constitute or imply any partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary relationship or other relationship between the parties or between the security company and the police.
- The system user acknowledges that the payment of the URN administration fee does not imply any assurance that a URN will be provided by the police and the provision of a URN does not imply or guarantee any service or response from the police will be provided.
